Stringer Escaped from Blackwell's Island and Boasted of it.

An escaped prisoner from Blackwell's Island was arraigned before Justice Feitner in the Essex Market Police Court to-day.

He is John Stringer twenty-two years old, of 72 East Ninth street. In February last Stringer was sentenced to the seene.

Fitzgerald claimed that Wood was parents. He served half of the term and then made his escape by swimming across the East River.

He got drunk last night and boasted of its Union Market police station, placed him under arrest for being drunk and disorderly. He was sentenced to three months on the new complaint. He will also have to serve the time he skipped by escaping from the island.

Btringer is said to be a had character, and its the reputed leader of the notorious Dry Dock gang.

The detectives say that the two men stole a horse and wagon from Expressman George F. Zinn, of 20 East Seventeenth street, and tried to dispose of them at the horse market for $25. In court Herman was recognized by Mrs. Hoffman, of 206 East Ninety-ninth street, as the man who burgiarized her flat two months ago. No complaint was entered against him, however, on the last-named account.

COUNSEL FOR TOM BURKE.

an Accused of Killing Bergman

Now Wants a Lawyer. STAPLETON, S. I., Aug. 23.-Old Tom Burke, the South Beach squatter, who is accused of murdering his son-in-law. Frederick Bergmann, has at last consented to engage counsel. This morning he sent for Lawyer William M. Mullen. As Mr. Mullen is absent on a vacation, his representative, Lawyer Brute, called at Police Hoadquarters, and had a conference with Burke. It is probable that Mr. Brute will appear at the Coroher's inquest to-night as counsel for Burke. for Burke.

County Engineer Henry C. Morrison has been instructed by Diatriet-Attorney Fitzgerald to make measurements of the scene of the tragedy, and a complete map will be prepared for the use of the prosecution at Burke's trial.

Fitsgerald is charged with assault by for water. Alison D. Wood, a colored letter-carrier, aged twenty-nine, of 156 West Fiftythird street. Wood says he was standing at Seventh avenue and Fifty-first street at 9.30 o'clock last night watch-this morning, on a charge of stealing fifty billboard tickets for admisson to the Columbus Theatre. The complainant was Henry Rosenberg, manager of the theatre, for which Cullen has been an advertising agent for some Rosenberg suspected Cullen, and yes-Rosenberg suspected Cullen, and yesterday laid a trap through Edward Blum, of 335 Alexander avenue, Cullen gave Blum the tickets and told him to take them to Frank James, a cigar dealer, at Third avenue, near One Hundred and Tenth street, and get 35 for them. Blum says he did so, and he took to Rosenberg the 35 bill which he said was given to him by James.

Rosenberg marked the bill for identification and directed Blum to give it to Cullon. Cullen was arrested when he accepted the marked bill from Blum.

Hague Said He Did It to Stave Off Starvation.

When Antonio Hague, a carpenter, of One Hundred and Beventeenth street, When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, norning in Yorkville Police Court, on a charge of forgery, the complainant was Charles Walinder, a liquor-dealer at 446 Weatern Boulevard.

Hague ran up a bill of $37 in Walinder's place. Last Saturday he presented a check for $31.25 in payment, drawn on the New York Mutual Bank, to the order of A. Hague, and signed "C. K. Bill."

The bank returned the check as worthless, and Detective Waters, of the East Billy-eighth street station, arrested Hague last night at his home. He at first denied that the check was forged, and in court this morning persisted in sticking to his first story. After Justice Meade questioned him closely, he admitted that he had forged the check.

His wife and family were starving and he thought this to be the only way out of his trouble, he said. He did not know who "C. K. Bill" was.

"I simply put down the first name that came into my head," he told the Justice. He was held in $1,000 ball for examination. charge of forgery, the complainant was
